

HARVEST ANNOUNCES CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER APPOINTMENT

OAKVILLE, ONTARIO, October 02, 2015 – Harvest Portfolios Group Inc. (“Harvest”) is pleased to announce the appointment of David Balsdon as Chief Compliance Officer. David joined Harvest in January 2015 as Vice President of Compliance and brought over 25 years’ of investment fund industry experience and previously held senior management positions as Chief Operating Officer, Chief Compliance Officer, Secretary-Treasurer and Director at two investment management firms. Michael Kovacs, President and CEO, said “Given Harvest’s steady growth, David’s appointment adds more depth and experience to our management team as we move forward.” David assumes the position from Paul MacDonald, who will remain the firm’s Chief Investment officer.

About Harvest: Harvest Portfolios Group Inc. was founded in 2009 with the vision of providing Canadian Investors with access to investment products that generate steady long term income.

For further information: for media inquiries or additional information: please contact Paul MacDonald at Harvest Portfolios Group Inc. at pmacdonald@harvestportfolios.com or at 1-866-998-8292.