PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Harvest Global Resource Leaders ETF

Unitholder letter March 2019

Dear Valued Unitholder,

Like 2017, 2018 proved to be a year of unexpected surprises, though this time with considerably more volatility and global markets ending the year in negative territory.

Should we really be that surprised? As we break into the tenth year since the financial crisis when the market put in a bottom in March 2009, we can point to three additional periods of market disruption: 1) in 2011, 2) late 2015 to early 2016, and 3) most of 2018. I have heard people referring to the current situation as a trader's market while investors have been sidelined. Though the volatility is tough to endure, remaining focused on long term growth by staying invested in great businesses will prove itself now as it has in the past.

A stockholder or unitholder never thinks of himself/herself as a business owner, though in the case of equity investing, that's what you are. You own a piece of many businesses through your ETF or Fund holdings, and if you like what you own and feel comfortable with the underlying companies its best to ignore noise and stay with the program. In short periods of time, interest rates, inflation, analyst reports and media articles can move a company's share price around, but over longer time horizons the trendline economics of the underlying business will override short term price fluctuations with the true direction of the stock price.

One thing we do know is that our investment philosophy at Harvest doesn't change, markets will change, and we accept that, we will fine tune portfolios when the dynamics for a company change, but we maintain our long-term thesis. Option writing, in our Leaders ETFs, allows us to reduce some of the shorter-term risk of a portfolio and monetize that portion of return for income generation. Most of the portfolio will remain long due to our positive bias towards the businesses we hold.

Early in 2018 Harvest launched its first specialty index ETF, the Blockchain Technologies ETF, as a long-term proxy on the transformational Blockchain technology. We truly believe this technology will change the way businesses and consumers transact, track and verify goods and services in a secure and non-corruptible manner. The sell off in crypto currencies early in the year washed through the burgeoning Blockchain technology sector due to its close association to cryptos as Blockchain provides the framework for the crypto currencies to transact upon. As tough as the inaugural year was, we hold steadfast in our belief that it is still early days for Blockchain technology, and it will continue to emerge as the go to transactional technology of the future.

As we look towards 2019, we expect to see some of the macro trade issues resolved and a relatively flat trend for interest rates, it wouldn't surprise us to see markets end the year on a positive note, but to predict how much or how we will get there is like trying to predict the weather. Plan your picnic, just keep an umbrella in the car.

On behalf of Harvest, I would like to thank you for your trust and investment in our products.

Sincerely,

Signed "Michael Kovacs"

Michael Kovacs
President and Chief Executive Officer

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGY

The Harvest Global Resource Leaders ETF invests in an equally weighted portfolio of Equity Securities of not less than 20 Global Resource Leaders and not more than 30 Global Resource Leaders, chosen from the Global Resource Leaders Investable Universe that, immediately following each quarterly reconstitution, have a market capitalization that is at least US$2 billion as determined at the time of investment.

The Manager selects the Equity Securities for the portfolio and at a minimum will review and reconstitute the portfolio quarterly (within 30 days following the last business day of January, April, July and October). If, in the opinion of the Manager, there are not 20 Global Resource Leaders that meet the investment criteria of the Fund, the Manager may invest in fewer than 20 Global Resource Leaders. At the time of the initial investment and immediately following each quarterly reconstitution, the Manager will review and give consideration to select investment characteristics that may include:

Diversification:	Geographic, sub-sector and commodity price outlooks
Value:	Price-to-Earnings Ratio, Price-to-Book Value Ratio, Priceto-Cash Flow Ratio and Yield
Quality:	Return-on-Equity, Debt-to-Equity, Debt-to-Cash Flow Ratio and debt maturity profile
Growth:	Long term earnings and dividend per share growth

The Fund's investment objectives are to provide Unitholders with:

- (i) monthly cash distributions; and
- (ii) the opportunity for capital appreciation;

To achieve lower overall volatility of portfolio returns, the Harvest Global Resource Leaders ETF will selectively write covered call options on up to 33% of the portfolio securities. The level of covered call option writing may vary based on market volatility and other factors.

Harvest will quarterly reconstitute and rebalance the Portfolio.

RISK

The risks associated with investing in the Fund are as described in the prospectus. There were no material changes to the Fund over the period that affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Harvest Global Resource Leaders ETF began trading following the listing of its units on February 5, 2018 consisting of 100,000 units of Class A Shares at $20.00 per unit for gross proceeds of $2,000,000. Performance information is not available for periods less than one year.

The Fund subsequently invested the proceeds of the offering into 25 issuers. The initial portfolio consisted of a portfolio of large capitalization resource issuers primarily focused on metals and mining, chemical companies, and other materials-related companies, along with selected issuers focused on physical commodities. The Fund selectively wrote call options during the period in accordance with its investment objectives.

The Fund offers diversified exposure across the metals, chemicals, strategic resources and other materials-related sub-sectors, while deviating from the benchmark, which has much greater concentrations in specific sub-sectors, specifically chemical related issuers and is concentrated in select issuers. The Fund had relatively larger weightings towards specific metals & mining and strategic resource focused positions that generally underperformed to the detriment of the Fund. These areas were negatively impacted from the US policy-induced sentiment shifts on China and the impacts of the "Trade War" on both countries. China is the largest country in terms of both absolute demand and growth of demand for many of these specific materials, and thus the fears of a slowdown driven by the trade tensions had outsized impacts on stocks exposed to these areas. While the Fund did have select exposure to the chemicals sub-sector, the broader materials benchmarks tend to have relatively high weights to these sectors and are often in more consumer-focused chemical companies that performed relatively well during the period.

The Fund remained invested in 30 Resource Issuers at the end of the period and is well positioned to benefit from a recovery in the underlying positions that had been under pressure during the period. The Fund selectively sold call options during the period in accordance with its investment objectives.

Explanatory Notes:

1. Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the reporting period. It is not intended that the Fund's net assets per unit table act as a continuity of opening and closing net assets per unit.
2. Net assets, at the commencement of operations on January 31, 2018 was $20.00.
3. Distributions were paid in cash.
4. Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) of the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
5. The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
6. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
