INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGY

The Fund invests in an equally weighted portfolio of Equity Securities of not less than 20 Global Resource Leaders and not more than 30 Global Resource Leaders, chosen from the Global Resource Leaders Investable Universe that, immediately following each quarterly reconstitution, have a market capitalization that is at least US$2 billion as determined at the time of investment.

The Manager selects the Equity Securities for the portfolio and at a minimum will review and reconstitute and rebalance the portfolio quarterly (within 30 days following the last business day of January, April, July and October). If, in the opinion of the Manager, there are not 20 Global Resource Leaders that meet the investment criteria of the Fund, the Manager may invest in fewer than 20 Global Resource Leaders. At the time of the initial investment and immediately following each quarterly reconstitution, the Manager will review and give consideration to select investment characteristics that may include:

Diversification:	Geographic, sub-sector and commodity price outlooks
Value:	Price-to-Earnings Ratio, Price-to-Book Value Ratio, Priceto-Cash Flow Ratio and Yield
Quality:	Return-on-Equity, Debt-to-Equity, Debt-to-Cash Flow Ratio and debt maturity profile
Growth:	Long term earnings and dividend per share growth

The Fund's investment objectives are to provide unitholders with:

- (i) quarterly cash distributions; and
- (ii) the opportunity for capital appreciation;

To achieve lower overall volatility of portfolio returns, the Fund will selectively write covered call options on up to 33% of the portfolio securities. The level of covered call option writing may vary based on market volatility and other factors.

RISK

The risks associated with investing in the Fund are as described in the prospectus. There were no material changes to the Fund over the period that affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund returned 8.59% for the period ended June 30, 2019 versus the MSCI Daily TR World Gross Materials of 17.21%.

The "Trade War" tensions between China and the US heightened through the end of 2018, and continue throughout 2019, despite hopes they would be resolved by now. In the fourth quarter of 2018, resources came under significant pressure as oversupply came to the fore once again and the intensification of the "Trade War" saw reduced global demand expectations. However, in early 2019 resources rebounded off the fourth quarter low, as market sentiment improved and hopes that trade tensions could find some resolution. Resources continue to exhibit wide, volatile swings.

The Fund offers diversified exposure across the industrial metals, chemicals, strategic resources and other materials-related sub-sectors, while deviating from the benchmark, which has much greater concentrations in specific sub-sectors, such as chemical related issuers, and is heavily weighted in select issuers. The Fund witnessed a healthy rebound from the 2018 lows, however as per the Investment Objectives its lack of holdings in precious metals which were boosted by Fed Rate cut talk, contributed to some underperformance vs the Benchmark.

China is the largest country in terms of both absolute demand and growth of demand for many of these specific materials, and thus the fears of a slowdown driven by the trade tensions had outsized impacts on stocks exposed to these areas. Additionally, a major catastrophe at a dam in Brazil impacted negatively on the performance of our holding in Vale S.A., while the supply implications for the iron ore market on the whole saw a sharp increase in prices, which benefitted the large Benchmark Index weightings for BHP Group PLC and Rio Tinto PLC. While the Fund did have select exposure to the resource-centric chemicals sub-industries, the broader materials benchmark tends to have relatively high weights to Chemicals in general and are often in more consumer-focused specialty chemical companies that performed relatively well during the period. This also contributed to some lag in performance for the Fund as compared to the Benchmark. The Fund's exposure in the Metals-focused area was more of a performance positive offset.

The Fund was invested in 29 Resource Issuers at the end of the period and is well positioned to benefit from a recovery in the underlying positions that had been under pressure during the period. The Fund selectively sold call options during the period in accordance with its investment objectives.

Explanatory Notes:

1. Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the reporting period. It is not intended that the Fund's net assets per unit table act as a continuity of opening and closing net assets per unit.
2. Net assets, at the commencement of operations on January 31, 2018 was $20.00.
3. Distributions were paid in cash.
4. Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) of the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period.
5. The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
6. The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.
